Blessed to Give

'IT IS MORE BLESSED TO GIVE THAN TO RECEIVE.'

Dear Oklahoma Baptists,

As I serve in my role, I am blessed and amazed to see how God is building His Kingdom through churches all across our great state. We truly are advancing the gospel together! One of the most unique and special aspects of who we are as Southern Baptists is the way we choose to cooperate. A wonderful example of this is how we come together each year to give to the Edna McMillan State Missions Offering (SMO). The SMO enables us as churches and individuals to be part of something much bigger than ourselves.

When you give to the SMO, you are making a deep and wide-ranging impact for the advancement of the Gospel here in our state and across the globe:

- When a tornado recently destroyed principal businesses in Marietta as well as the hospital and community food bank, requests for food assistance went from 40 people a week before the tornado to 250 a week afterward. SMO funds were used to provide food to help our churches meet the needs of their community and share the Gospel.
- Thanks to assistance of SMO funds, individuals with special needs are able to participate in the annual Camp Perfect Wings at CrossTimbers where they hear about Jesus' love for them and His Gospel.
- As our state grows in population and ethnic diversity, the SMO helps affinity ministries reach people of every background with the Gospel and be equipped for ministry.

These are just some of the many ways the SMO is making a difference for the Kingdom of God. Through giving to the SMO, churches can be part of incredible and far-reaching missions and ministries. We truly do more for the Kingdom cooperating, serving, and giving together!

Paul told the Ephesian elders, "In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive'" (Acts 20:35). As we give to this special offering, my prayer is that the Lord will use it to further strengthen the work He is already doing in Oklahoma and around the world.

Serving Jesus with You,

Americans are spending a vast amount of time, money and energy focused upon who will be the next President of the United States of America.

This is indeed an election of historic proportions. Many are involved financially or personally in these or other political campaigns this 2024 Election cycle. Still others have spent a considerable portion of their reputation, speaking out in person or online for a particular candidate, passionately pleading for others to follow suit.

All of these converging factors and efforts arrive at a decision point on Election Day. On Tues., Nov. 7, registered voters of all parties will have their opportunity to cast a ballot for President and other key offices and issues. Here are a few thoughts entering the 2024 Election Day.

BEFORE YOU VOTE

This election cycle has been an especially tumultuous one. Politics is always going to have its drama, yet this campaign season has been home to an unusually high level of chaos.

We should commit all of these serious matters going on in America and around the world to the Lord in prayer. Christians can stay focused and serve as a light. Going into the voting booth, we each need to do homework on all that's before us—from candidates to state questions to judicial retention votes.

Oklahomans can find all kinds of help resources at this website https://oklahoma.gov/elections. This webpage offers information about how to register to vote, lists of announced candidates, and sample ballots, as well as an election calendar.

Whether it's the President, Congress, voting on retaining (or not retaining) Oklahoma Supreme Court judges or the Legislature, take time to pray and seek the Lord.

As you do your homework, truly pray that the Lord's will would be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

AFTER YOU VOTE

Picture it now. Election Day has come and gone, and we know how Americans voted in the various races. Within months, these elected officials will be sworn into office.

For many, Election Day will bring as many deep disappointments as it will rejoicing. Maybe the election went just as you hoped, maybe it went just as you had feared.

If these deep disappointments occur, don't panic. Instead, take moments to reflect and pray. Also consider other people that you may have offended during the election season and think what the Lord would have you do.

Let's each set aside the time to seek the Lord's leading in your vote. Pray, then vote, then pray more. The future course of our country depends on such prayers.

Lastly and above all, this Election Day and beyond, let's advance the Gospel. God help us...

A PODCAST FEATURING TODD FISHER & ANDY TAYLOR

Developing and Growing Key Relationships

EPISODE 50

Relationships form the foundation of pastoral ministry and leadership. Todd and Andy discuss how to develop the key relationships in the church that will keep your leadership moving forward.

Does your church have a focus on reaching, discipling and engaging senior adults in missions? The fields are certainly white unto harvest. The number of unreached senior adults is growing rapidly.

The Bill and Susan Pierce Institute for Transforming Life Expectancies helps churches and senior adults prioritize this evolving area of ministry. My good friend Greg McNeece is the Executive Director of the Institute.

The world says to retire. Sadly, sometimes Christians apply the word retire to serving the Lord. People may reflect a "I've done my part" attitude. Surprisingly, even the church sometimes sends signals to senior adults that "you've done your part".

But God's Word teaches that spiritual gifts are for all of life and, the great commission is always the mission. Senior adults should lean in to serving the Lord, not retire from it. Using our spiritual gifts is not only vital to our maturity as a Christian but it undergirds the health of the church. "O Magnify the Lord with me and let us exalt His name together." Psalm 34:3

I heard about a 77-year-old and a 19-year-old that went on their first mission trip. Both the older person and the younger person were changed by God in amazing ways. They learned that serving the Lord is never about age. It is about our heart being willing and prepared to serve. What a wonderful opportunity we all have to advance the gospel, regardless of age.

What if we changed our minds (transformed our life expectancies) about what we emphasize in senior adult ministry as we move into the future? In the 1960's, when the number of teenagers was growing rapidly, churches began to engage youth ministers. The emphasis was on evangelism, discipleship and missions (which it still is in youth ministry).

Now that the number of senior adults is growing rapidly, shouldn't we re-think our focus? Should we engage senior adult leaders who encourage, equip and train senior adults to focus on evangelism, discipleship and missions?

The Pierce Institute is hosting a conference in the fall of 2024. The conference will bring together key leaders who serve in senior adult ministry. A primary focus will be reimagining ministry among this age group. I believe senior adult ministry has a bright future.

Senior adults appear to be ready to mobilize and advance the gospel. In Listening Sessions the Pierce Institute is holding around the state, senior adults are telling us they value relationships and that relationships are key to reaching people for Christ. They also tell us that only about 20% of the older adults in their communities attend church even once a month.

Let's consider what happens when we begin to reimagine senior adult ministry. A new day really does call for a new way. Let's focus on evangelism, discipleship and missions. Let's transform our life expectancies in the area of senior adult ministry.

Bill PierceBaptist Villiage Communities
President

Several years ago when I was the pastor at Marlow, First, the church made an important decision to commit to mission work in the beautiful country of Ecuador. We took several trips there throughout multiple years. If you haven't been there, you should go. It is beautiful.

There was one trip in particular I often think about. We flew from Oklahoma City to Houston and then from Houston to Quito, Ecuador. That was back in the good old days when you could actually count on connecting flights to be relatively on time and get you to your destination.

I guess I should admit that I don't fly well. In fact, I walk better than I fly. It takes me longer, but I can usually get to my destination. For those of you who are wondering, I actually walk better than I run unless there is a bear chasing me. In fact, there is a direct correlation between how fast I can run and how big the bear is. But I have digressed...

We were on the plane in Houston waiting to take off for Quito. I was sitting towards the back of the plane next to one of our medical doctors from church. Across the aisle from me sat a wonderful Ecuadorian couple.

We hadn't been in the air very long when we began to encounter a little turbulence. There is nothing like turbulence to sharpen up your prayer life. So, I prayed. Then I peeked with my left eye at the Ecuadorian couple setting across the aisle from me. The little lady was reading from a pocket New Testament. I remember thinking that was so cool and, wouldn't you know it, before long, the turbulence stopped.

We flew for a while longer and suddenly got into some real turbulence. The Ecuadorian man pushed the button to summons the flight attendant. She came back to where they were sitting, had a short conversation, left, and quickly returned with one of those airplane-sized bottles of Jack Daniels whiskey. The little lady got the bottle opened and swigged the whole thing down in one swallow. I have often wondered if she decided since the Holy Spirit might not be able to get her back home, if some spirits might be the help she needed.

Oddly enough, the plane didn't calm down. But the little Ecuadorian lady went smooth to sleep. That is until we were ready to land in Quito. At the time, Quito was one of the most dangerous airports in the world. And the landing that night did not disappoint. We hit the runway pretty hard and bounced back up in the air. I didn't know if I needed to ask the Holy Spirit to help me or have a snort of some Jack Daniels. About then, the plane hit the runway a second time. It was then that little, inebriated Ecuadorian lady reached across the aisle, grabbed my hand, and we held hands all the way to the terminal.

When we got to the terminal, she turned me loose and said, what I think was "Thank you." I am not sure what her husband said, but I don't think it was thank you. But we all made it there alive, ready to walk or run (you have to keep your eyes on those Ecuadorian bears) to our next destination.

So, here's the deal. Adult alcoholic beverages don't solve turbulence in our lives, but the Holy Spirit sure can. If you are coming in for a hard landing, it is always nice to have someone to hold your hand. Not everyone appreciates hand holding, especially among strangers. Terminals sure are misnamed.

Falls Creek Sees Numerous Decisions

2024 Falls Creek was a massive success, seeing many students make decisions to leave the world behind and follow Jesus. In total, 5,543 decisions were made with 2,686 professions of faith, 113 assurances of salvation, 1,427 recommitments, 560 calls to ministry and 757 baptisms, special prayers or other decisions. The camp featured a notable slate of speakers who challenged students through their sermons to focus their lives fully on God!

"Numbers certainly aren't everything and Oklahoma Baptists should commit themselves to praying for students who made a decision to follow through in commitment and be an active part of a local church," said Todd Sanders, Falls Creek program director. "But these numbers reveal the amazing work of God in the lives of students."

This year, the theme for Falls Creek was "Totally". Some may recall the use of the word by stereotypical surfers in the 1980s. In reality, the theme describes the nature and character of God. The theme was selected "to help students take a journey into and respond to the truths of who God is," said Sanders.

"In a world that is uncertain, that is always changing, that is volatile, our God is totally different," Sanders said. "We want to help students respond to the truths of who God is and be more anchored (in Him) in a culture that provides few anchors."

Psalm 139:17 was the theme verse for 2024, "How precious to me are Your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!" The focus of most sermons were how students can be focused "Totally" on God, serving and growing in Him. In addition to the excellent speakers hosted at Falls Creek, worship leaders from across the state and country were also featured.

Thousands of students attended the various breakout sessions throughout the summer. These sessions covered complex topics and helped students grow spiritually. Breakout sessions are offered in addition to the main camp sessions and they are an incredible way for students to deepen their knowledge of God's Word and strengthen their walk with our Heavenly Father.

Missions Mobilization returned as an emphasis which connected campers with various sending opportunities. A new feature focused on Disaster Relief (DR) and made students and leaders aware of the importance of this Oklahoma Baptists ministry. Students packed 12,000 first contact bags for Disaster Relief which included supplies for those affected by disasters in Oklahoma as well as inspiring messages of hope.

This year, Falls Creek had a "totally" great summer, and leaders are looking forward to see what God has planned for next year. More information about the Falls Creek youth weeks can be found a oklahomabaptists.org/youthcamp.

CrossTimbers 2024: Lives Made New

2024's CrossTimbers Children's Mission Adventure Camp saw numerous students make decisions to follow Christ. This year's theme for the camp was "Made New", based on 2 Cor. 5:17, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation: the old has passed away, and see, the new has come!" Throughout the summer, CrossTimbers had 12 sessions consisting of four days each with their own guest speaker who helped nourish and enrich the students' understanding of God's word.

In total, 628 decisions were made including 345 professions of faith, 59 assurance of salvations, 64 rededications, 11 calls to ministry and 149 other decisions, baptisms and prayer requests.

The camp's theme focused on what it means to be made new in Christ and how our relationship with God can be restored. Students studied God's Word and discussed how we are all sinners but are Made New when we ask Jesus to be our Boss, our Lord.

"This summer we've seen God move in incredible ways," said Program Director of CrossTimbers, Sarah Hagar. "We've seen kids make Jesus the Boss of their life."

Each day of each session focused on a different part of 2 Cor. 5:17, showing students how to be Made New through Christ and how He continually makes us new day by day. Outside of the scheduled chapel times, students were also given opportunities to discuss what they learned with other campers and how the Word impacted them personally.

"We've had a lot of kids ask some really good questions," said Hagar. "There are always kids asking their sponsors and tribal leaders spiritual questions."

At the camp, students learn biblical principles, create and strengthen relationships and experience nature in a fun and safe environment. In addition to helping students strengthen their walk with Christ, CrossTimbers hosts three missions stops each year. These focus on a ministry or missionary family in Oklahoma, North America and around the world. This helps the students better understand the missions field and the countries which host missions.

"If we want to see people serve the nations, we have to teach them about those who have served and are serving now," said Hagar.

Students participate in fun and engaging activities including crafts, games, activities and food and drink tasting that help to connect them to the mission areas. This year Disaster Relief, Nicaragua and the land-locked South African country of Lesotho (pronounced luh-soo-too) were the subjects of focus.

"I hope to see God continue to move here and for years to come," said Hagar. "I love that they get to learn about missions as well and I hope they continue to learn."

Registration for CrossTimbers 2025 opens the first Monday of November. CrossTimbers is supported by the Cooperative Program.

January through June 2024 Giving Report

Dear Oklahoma Baptists,

Together we are advancing the gospel in our state and across the globe. A major part of our gospel impact is the Cooperative Program (CP), which enables a church of any size in any location the opportunity to be part of something greater for the Kingdom of God than it could be by itself.

Most of our churches could not afford on their own to fully support even one family on the international mission field. But through the CP and Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, there are more than 3,600 men and women serving as fully funded missionaries with the International Mission Board along with their 2,700 children. The CP enables the planting of many new churches every year and chaplaincy work through the North American Mission Board. It helps support our six seminaries, making it possible to give SBC students training for ministry significant discounts in tuition.

Closer to home, Oklahoma Baptist churches give through the CP to also support ministries like: Falls Creek, where this summer many students committed their lives to follow Christ; CrossTimbers where children hear the gospel and are taught about the importance of missions; Baptist Collegiate Ministries on 40 Oklahoma college campuses where students are coming to faith in Christ and being discipled; Disaster Relief where people experiencing some of their most difficult hours after a natural disaster are helped, encouraged and told about the love of Jesus by our volunteers meeting their physical needs. In addition, our state convention is able to provide resources, services, conferences, retreats and other ministry to Oklahoma Baptist churches and pastors because of the CP. The gospel ministries of our affiliates OBU, OBHC, BVC, and WatersEdge are also helped through CP giving.

In the following pages, you can see a mid-year report on giving from January through June of how together we have advanced the gospel through the CP. I am thankful for every church in our state convention who so faithfully serves and gives.

Serving Jesus With You,

Dr. Todd Fisher Executive Director-Treasurer Oklahoma Baptists

TRIBUTE

Ruth Cotton, 99, died June 21. She and her husband, Tom, served five state churches and ministered in Enon Association for 20 years. They worked as gatekeepers at Falls Creek for 23 years and helped direct children's camp for 19 years. Ruth went on 30 mission trips with the International Mission Board.

Victor Orta, 86, died July 11. He was a long-time minister in Tulsa and champion for Oklahoma's Hispanic community. He planted 20 churches and founded 25 Hispanic Ministry Centers for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma (BGCO), and was a home missionary for the Southern Baptist Convention. He served on several committees of the Tulsa Baptist Network, Tulsa Metropolitan Ministries and the BGCO. In 1998, The Tulsa World acknowledged Orta as one of the 100 most influential people during Tulsa's first century. In 2008, he was named Honorary Mayor of Oklahoma City.

Helen Marie Patterson, 107, died Jan. 22. She was the wife of retired pastor Lester Patterson, with whom she served in Oklahoma in Native American ministry. She was a leader and officer in Pottawatomie-Lincoln Association Woman's Missionary Union for 23 years. Gifts in memory of "Mrs. P," as she was affectionately called may be made to Shawnee, Salateeska, 45703 Garrett's Lake Rd., Shawnee, OK, 74804, or to the Lester and Helen Patterson Scholarship Fund at OBU.

Pat Turner of Skiatook died July 20. He had served as a disaster relief chaplain since 2005.

Vera Faye Cox died May 21. She was the wife of Tom Cox (74 years), who was pastor at Lawton, Letitia; Shawnee, Fairview; Ramona, First; Valliant, First; Ninnekah, First; and Ponca City, First, and was Director of Missions in Washington-Osage Association.

MINISTRY

AUGUSTA "GUS" SMITHDirector, Native Praise Choir

Can you talk about how you got involved in music and how you got involved in the Native Praise Choir?

I have always loved singing. As a little girl, my cousin and I used to compete on who could sing the loudest in church. We also used to compete on who knew the most songs in the hymn book. In high school, I joined a choir, but my teacher didn't encourage me, and I felt inferior. Yet in my college years at Bacone College, I was encouraged to join the Bacone Choir and was immediately accepted and loved every minute of it. The choir served as ambassadors for the college, so we traveled to many areas of the United States. When Native Praise was organized in 1999, I had recently returned to Oklahoma, after living out of state for almost 25 years. I was in the very first group of ladies that Willene Pierce gathered to sing hymns in our tribal languages for the Oklahoma WMU Annual Meeting. There were 50 of us.

For those who may be less familiar, can you describe the Native Praise Choir?

The Native Praise Choir is unique in many ways. When we first began singing together, Willene approached the WMU organizations of the five Indian Baptist Associations in Oklahoma. At the WMU Annual Meeting, we sang in three groups. The Muscogee Creek and Seminole women sang a hymn in the Muscogee language, the Chickasaw and Choctaw women sang a hymn in the Choctaw language, and the Cherokee women in the Cherokee language. When Willene accepted an invitation from Wanda Lee at National WMU to sing at the National WMU Celebration in 2002 at St. Louis, we realized that we needed an official name for our choir. We became Native Praise, a music ministry of the Native American LINK. At that point in time, we had 130 women. We began working on everyone in the choir learning to sing the hymns of the three languages of the Five Civilized Tribes of Oklahoma. Today, we have 44 choir members who represent 25 Oklahoma churches and 17 tribal nations.

Can you talk about the Native American LINK Ministry?

Willene Pierce was the founding executive director-treasurer of the Native American LINK Inc. The Native American LINK, Inc. is a Baptist ministry focused on the Native American women in our Native Baptist congregations across Oklahoma designed to help women grow spiritually, strengthen family life and develop personal skills. LINK signifies "Living In Neighborly Kindness." It is primarily a women-to-women approach. It may link women from one tribe to another, from one church to another, non-Native to Native, older women to younger women and those with specific ministry skills.

With the 25th Anniversary of the Native Praise Choir here, can you talk about the tour?

Our Anniversary tour was intended as a celebration of the endurance of the choir. The week before we left on our tour, our Native Praise Choir was featured in an article in the WMU missions magazine (July 2024 issue). That was a surprise and an honor. Thirty people were able to travel on this tour. Our stops included singing at Greenfield, Ind., Calvary, where the guest speaker was the SBC President, Bart Barber. That was a God-thing, totally unplanned (by us)! Then, we sang at the National WMU Missions Celebration and Annual Meeting. We were honored to have Wanda Lee, National WMU Executive Director-Treasurer Emerita and National WMU

President Emerita bring the commissioning of the Native Praise for the next 25 years. While at the SBC Convention, the choir was invited to sing at the Fellowship of Native American Christians annual meeting.

We completed our tour singing at Selbyville, Del., Fenwick Island; Walnut Hills, Va., and Moro, Ark. We were able to include some stops to the Lincoln Presidential Museum in Springfield, Ill., Hershey, Pa., a bus tour of Amish country in Lancaster County, Pa., a drive down the Eastern Shore tunnel to Virginia Beach. We have made many friends throughout these areas of travel, so it was great to and share about our ministry and culture of our Native American people.

What are some of the most rewarding aspects of this ministry?

The best part of this ministry is the genuine, sincere sisterhood of the women of many tribal nations. If it were not for the Native American LINK ministry bringing us together to sing together, to minister together, and to be on mission together, we may have never made the friendships we share today. My personal joy is seeing them share hugs, prayers, tears, and best of all, laughter. Each woman has a story of her own. It is exciting to have young women and preteens who have joined the choir. They are our hope. When we sing these tribal hymns, something happens. God's voice is heard in these hymns. Most of our hymns are those that carried our people during a very difficult time in history, the Trail of Tears. We do not forget that. We pray that these hymns will continue to be sung until Jesus returns.

while serving in the Army, my family always lived on base or the nearby city. Whether it has been Dallas/ Fort Worth, Washington D.C., Columbia S.C., Honolulu, or Tulsa, we have always lived where there has been a haze of the city wherever we looked.

Until now.

Now we live in the country. Northeast Coweta. No street lights. No neighbors behind us. The sunrise and sunset look different. I can see the stars at night...all of them! In short, it's peaceful. We only needed to back up from the city a bit to see things in a whole new perspective.

The last two plus years have given me a whole new perspective on Oklahoma Baptists. As I trek the central area of Oklahoma, visiting with pastors and fellowshipping with associations, I see Baptist life differently. Backing up a bit has a way of bringing clarity.

Clarity has come to me in these areas:

- · We have much more in common than we have differences. Sure, we have some theological nuance, various methods, even a few different sizes, but we share much more in common. Foremost, we are Gospel people!
- Our churches love their pastors. Of course there are ornery people! But spend a hot minute talking to the lay people in Oklahoma Baptist churches and you will find out quick that they love and are proud of their pastors! Being a pastor is THE highest calling. THESE are the heroes. THESE are the leaders. They give their lives to shepherd the flocks, and we love them for it.

- I have lived the "city life" for all of my 56 years. Even We sacrifice much more than I knew. Oklahoma Baptist churches want to give, want to see the Gospel taken to the edges of the world, want to see ministries thrive in their churches, in their associations, in their state conventions, and around the world...and they are willing to give until it hurts.
  - Love for the church and pastors pours out in abundance from those who serve at the state convention and associations, from our affiliates, from our university (Zip, Bang, OBU!). These folks genuinely want to see the church "win." It amazes me to see how tirelessly these great people work together for the fame of Jesus and the good of the local church.
  - We are a grateful group. We know God's mercy and kindness. We have received the grace of Jesus. We know that we are blessed. We have seen the Lord's provision again and again. We know it is nothing we have achieved or earned. Every blessing is from our Father. Everywhere my tires take me, I hear how grateful Oklahoma Baptists are to be Oklahoma Baptists.

Yes, I have a new perspective. And just like at my new home, I love having a back porch view to the beauty of who we are as Oklahoma Baptists.

How to Pray

Pray for Faye Mueller as she serves with the International Mission Board in Central Asia. Faye works to empower churches to lead local ministry, share the Gospel with Muslims, and disciple new believers. Faye has met people who have survived being stoned for their faith, who have lost their jobs or children for their faith, and who are boldly sharing the Word despite the suffering.

Pray God would grant strong faith, unity and provision for local believers.

Pray Faye's desire to remain in the power of Christ and His Word will be strong.

Pray many new believers will come from Islam and Hinduism.

Every year, campers representing more than 50 Native American tribes and more than 250 churches gather at Falls Creek to participate in worship services, classes, and activities that are designed to engage people ages preschool to adult. The purpose of this yearly event is to foster and promote Christian training, inspiration, fellowship, evangelism, and missionary zeal among the Indians in their Baptist church life.

Pray many campers will receive a calling to reach out and serve in their home communities or into special ministry.

Pray campers will better understand Christ's work in their lives.

Pray campers will address the needs and concerns they find around them at home.

Jason Yarbrough serves as the Disaster Relief and Chaplaincy Ministry Partner. He strives to enlist people to become involved, to equip them to serve well, to empower them to do the ministry and to encourage them along the way. Disasters or crisis situations open the door for spiritual conversations. Jason says of disaster relief volunteers, "Their willingness and eagerness to serve the Lord is very refreshing and allows us to advance the Gospel with each disaster."

Pray more Oklahoma Baptists will join disaster relief ministry.

Pray volunteers will step into leadership positions to strengthen the ability to respond to disasters.

Pray God will give Jason the ability to balance the demands of work and the need for family time.

OKLAHOMA

Shannon Cross serves as the Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM) director at Rogers State University. He helps students discover where they are in their walk with Jesus and learn to walk closer with Him. He enjoys seeing college students discover through the BCM that God has a much bigger plan for them than they ever thought. He delights in seeing college students take their faith seriously and become faithful witnesses for Christ after college.

Pray Shannon would have godly success and favor on the college campus.

Pray God would give Shannon wisdom and humilty in leading the ministry at the university.

Pray God would help Shannon reach out to the international students on campus and that He would send more.
